not account for. On examining the urinary system a rapid action will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear. The color will be a thin milky blue, ance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the

THE CHINESE BILL.

The Alta publishes a very sensible article on the proposition to amend the Chinese Restriction Act, and thinks it strange there should be opposition from any quarter on this Coast. The Act is palpably defective in more than one respect, and the chances are that Judge Lowell's decision will be sustained, and at any rate we cannot afford to take chances on it. But even if this danger did not exist, there would be ample reason for the amendment of the Act, because it is totally defective in not providing any adequate penalty for its violation. It will be impossible to enforce the exclusion of the Chinese from British Columbia unless there is some way of punishing them for attempting to violate the law. To merely send them back will have no effect in preventing them from making a second attempt to enter. There is nothing to be lost by making an effort to amend the defects in the Restriction law. If the bill should be lost, no harm would have been done, for the Act would then stand just as it does now, while if it passed as it undoubtedly would, the barrier against the Asiatic horde would be made effective, which it now is not. There will not be again for years so favorable a time as at the present for pushing this necessary measure. A President is to be elected next year, and neither party will dare to take the responsibility of killing the bill. To kill such a bill at this time would be political suicide. A year from next December Congress will be in a less compliant mood, and more in different to an appeal from the Pacific Coast. Now is the golden opportunity, and it will be foolish, indeed, not to improve it. But it is said by some that the people of the Pacific Coast must depend upon themselves to make the existing Act efficacious, by presenting such a determined front that the Chinese will not venture to come. This is only a repetition of what we used to be told, before there was a Restriction Act at all, the people might do if they would; but they never did it, and there is no reason to believe that what could not be done before can be done now. Efficient laws are our only remedy against the Chinese scourge, and such laws the people of California must insist upon having.

AN UNWISE MOVE.

Some time ago a movement was inaugurated in the East to organize the colored voters of the country into an independent party for the purpose, as was stated by the leaders, to make use of their untried strength to place political friends in power. The scheme was conceived in fraud, and it is gratifying to know that it shows signs of collapsing. The advocates of the plan are now very few, and they have scarcely any influence. Fred Douglass is the most prominent of the lot, and he is probably regretting his stand by this time. Every consideration of policy, not to mention higher considerations, should have dictated a totally different course than the calling of the Washington and Louisville conventions. It was a silly and short sighted piece of business. If the negro voter does not hold fast to the Republican party, he will not find a plank in the ocean of politics worth his while to grapple for. If the Democracy accepts him it will be to use him, and not to reward him. The Republican party broke the color line; the colored people who attempt separation are simply restoring it.

Doings in Ireland.

At the meeting of the Irish National League held in Dublin last Wednesday, Davis, Saxton and Parnell were present. Parnell referred to the success of the Irish members of parliament to promote the Land, Tenure and Migration Acts. He said he believed the day was near when the Irish would gain the full programme of measures for which the League had been formed. Parnell hailed the Irishmen of America and Australia for their support of the cause of progress in Ireland. He said the bulk of the English members of the House of Commons conceded that Home Rule was necessary for Ireland. Richard O'Shaughnessy has resigned his seat in the House of Commons for Limerick to take a Government office.

A Bull City.

The Footlight says "there has never been a duller time in Virginia than at present. This can be accounted in part by the fact that a large number of people living here are away on their Summer vacation. There would be a still larger number absent but for their objection to walking." The editor has probably been deprived of his usual Summer vacation and is feeling a little blue. Virginia City is not so bad as pictured. The stock market has at ways kept Virginia at fever heat, a regular hurrah mining town. Hundreds of men in the city were making and losing thousands of dollars every day and for years on the Comstock men had no idea of the value of money. Every man in the city, day laborers and all, (ministers excepted,) were speculating in mining stocks, and lucky or unlucky all spent money lavishly, expecting every semi-annual deal to swing them to the surface with a competency. Now that this business has reached an end and the people have got to come down to regular business naturally enough old timers become discouraged and long for a new field where old familiar scenes are encountered. Better not waste time looking for it, boys, for the halcyon days of "Auld Lang Syne" on the Comstock, like the golden days of California, are things of the past, never again to be witnessed by mortal man. Be thankful that you were one of the few in this world fortunate enough to witness those exciting scenes, and although you failed to salt away a barrel or two of the filthy lucre which it was floating around loose, make the best of the situation and remember the words of the poet:

"If thorns will grow where roses bloom,
It cannot be prevented;
So, make the best of life you can,
And smile and be contented."

Equal to the Emergency.

A Parisian journal some time ago recorded an exceedingly clever bit of match-making executed by an American lady of this order in brilliant style. Her eldest daughter had sailed from New York with some friends for a tour of Europe, and after "doing" the continent, had returned to the French capital to take several months of rest and pleasuring. Attractive and clever, she had many suitors, some more, some less desirable. She could not marry them all, so she adroitly reduced the number to two, the best of the lot, of course. Then she wrote home to her mamma, explaining the exact situation of affairs, that they were both so handsome, agreeable, well-connected, and rich that she could not decide between them, and closed with the question "What shall I do?" Ten days later she received a cablegram from mamma: "I sail to-morrow; hold both till I come." The next transatlantic steamer brought Mrs. Blank with her second daughter, just turned eighteen, and fresh from school. On her arrival the old lady at once took the helm of affairs, and steered so deftly through the dangerous waters that in a few weeks she had reached port with all colors flying. To drop metaphor, she attended the wedding of her two daughters at the American chapel on the same morning. After due examination she had decided that neither of the nice fellows should go out of the family.

A Change of Station.

General Sherman has recommended that the Twenty first Infantry, now on the Pacific, with headquarters at Fort Vancouver, Washington Territory, change stations with the Tenth Infantry, now on the Lakes, with headquarters at Detroit. If approved by the Secretary of War, the change will be made this Fall.

A Midget Marriage.

A strange sight was witnessed on the stage of the Buckingham Theater at Louisville, Kentucky, Tuesday night. In the presence of an enormous crowd, Judge Hake married John Seemans, a Russian dwarf, forty-two inches in height, and thirty-two years old, to Maria Vall, of North Carolina, a midget thirty-one inches tall and thirty-five years old.

Meeting With Favor.

The New York Herald prints two and a half columns of newspaper indorsements of the Government telegraph from all parts of the country. Harper's Weekly this week has a strong leader favoring the project. It says: The proposition for a postal telegram has been received with remarkable favor throughout the country.

A Watery Grave.

On Tuesday last two strange boys, following the vocation of bootblacks, were drowned at Sacramento while bathing in the river, and the Bee in alluding to the affair, and the fact that the announcement hardly received a passing notice in that community, pathetically remarks: "but for all that these boys—wayward as they may have been—were somebody's darlings. Doubtless somewhere there are to day two mothers' hearts filled with longings to know where their sons are, and praying that protecting angels may be guiding their footsteps through the thorns and over the rocks that obstruct the pathways of youthful wanderers. Who can say that these waifs of the street were not the pets of some household—perhaps embodied the last hopes of fond parents? That at least one of them was a hero was proven by his sacrificing his life in trying to save that of his comrade. Their boyish dreams of fortune—perhaps of glory—have vanished beneath the waters that smothered them. Let us hope the boys themselves are happier than those they left behind."

The Dangers of Mob Law.

The outcome of the recent scandal at Modesto, California, shows the danger of mob violence. A couple of weeks ago, when charges were first made that a lawyer named Robbins had been tampering with a number of young girls there, public indignation was so great that, had not the officers spirited the accused away from the place, he would have been lynched. Now public opinion has almost entirely changed. A medical examination of the children alleged to have been tampered with has proven the charges to be groundless, and the mother of the girl who first made complaint against Robbins has been held up to scorn as a would-be blackmailer—one who had used her children for similar purposes in other communities. The charges against Robbins included other citizens, all of whom came near being hanged by the indignant populace. There is now some talk of tarring and feathering the McCrellis crowd and driving them out of town.

More Patriotic than Wise.

Here's another patriotic citizen who loves his country nearly a million dollars worth. The treasury officials report the receipt of $931,600 in money, bonds and other securities, which J. B. Gardner, of Boston, lately deceased, left by will to the United States, to be devoted to the extinguishment of the public debt. While the patriotic motive of such bequests is commendable, the testator would accomplish more good if the money were devoted in some direction for the amelioration of the mental or moral condition of the people in some section of our country. John F. Slater's million dollar fund for the education of colored children will have a greater effect as directed than it would have if covered into the treasury. The national debt is being paid with ease and fully fast enough without outside aid.

A Stupendous Work.

Gen. Stone, chief engineer of the Florida ship canal, in a report to the directors, estimates that a tide-water ship canal of sufficient width and depth to allow the passage of two sea going steamers of the first class, without inconvenience, can be constructed at a total cost of $46,000,000. The length of the canal would be 137 1-2 miles. Gen. Stone calculates that the saving of distance to steam vessels between New York and New Orleans would be 500 miles, between New York and Pensacola, 600 miles and between New Orleans and Liverpool, 412. Another advantage would be the avoidance of the passage through the Florida straits, which is usually made with considerable hazard. Gov. Brown, president of the company, is confident that parts of the work will be under contract within 90 days.

The Old Story.

Kirkland W. Fitch, the defaulting cashier of the Second National Bank of Warren, O., whose absence, together with a shortage of $80,000, caused considerable excitement in that town last week, turned up in Boston, last week and, either overcome by remorse or being convinced that capture was eminent, surrendered to the police on Monday. It is the same old story—stock gambling.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher arrived at Portland last Tuesday night over the Northern Pacific Railroad. He was under contract to deliver two lectures in that city.

A Notorious Woman Gone.

Emma Thompson, whose death in a Philadelphia almshouse was announced last Monday, was none other than Emma Jacobs, whose career a quarter of a century ago had a national notoriety. She was born in Lancaster, but her home at an early age was in Philadelphia, where she exercised a remarkable fascination over some of the leading intellects of the day. While Congress was in session it was her custom to go to Washington, and there some of her most remarkable conquests occurred. She is said to have completely fascinated at least one President of the United States, and nearly all the leading men in Washington—from 20 to 60—made her room their rendezvous. So great was her influence over members of Congress that her value as a lobbyist was known to corporations and individuals, and many important bills were passed through her instrumentality.

Barbarous Sport.

The barbarous "fox-hunts" at Newport are considered such rare sport that the correspondents of the New York papers dish up columns of details, describing with great minuteness the "chase," and mentioning particularly the scores of well known "society" people who join. As a general thing some forty or more horsemen and horsewomen succeed, after a run of a dozen miles, and with the aid of a pack of hounds, in running down one poor little fox. But last week's hunt was slightly marred by the "mean conduct" of some farmers who placed "obstructions" on their property. The farmers, undoubtedly, had got tired of having their fences broken down and their crops ruined in order to contribute to the "sport," and so began putting up barbed wire fence or other "obstructions."

Check to Discrimination.

Last week a large number of the principal merchants in Chicago appointed a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for an organization known as the Chicago Freight Bureau. This Drafting Committee reported to a sub-committee, which latter have called a general meeting of the merchants and shippers to consider and ratify the constitution and perfect the organization. The constitution submitted provides for a General Manager and a President, the former to be a salaried officer. The organization is purely local and for the purpose of obtaining uniform rates for its members at all points. About all the large wholesale and manufacturing interests of Chicago are members. It is claimed the railroads have been discriminating in favor of certain shippers. This bureau hereafter renders such discriminations impossible.

The Oklahoma Raiders.

The public are familiar with doings of Captain Payne's scheme to force a colony into Indian Territory in violation of law. The raiders were removed by the soldiers but persisted in returning, and finally applied to the U. S. Circuit Court for an injunction to restrain Secretary Lincoln and General Crook from interfering with their colonization scheme which has just been denied. District Attorney Hollowell of Kansas will file a complaint charging the raiders with conspiracy in order that their rights may be determined.

Villard's Guests.

Sir Sidney Waterloo, one of Villard's distinguished guests from the Old World, who arrived in New York Wednesday, will, after visiting Oregon and the Northern Pacific Railroad, extend his visit from Oregon to San Francisco, where he will visit old friends, going thence home via China. Sir W. B. Guerdon, Baronet, also goes to San Francisco, then to Australia.

Among the wrongs suffered by the colored people of Arkansas, as recited in the resolutions of their Convention, was the fact that no white man was ever hanged in the State for murdering a negro.

The citizens of Woodland, California, have just voted a tax of $10,000 to build a new school house. That is a good town to select as a permanent home.

Dr. Baker Edwards, the Government analyst, has analyzed the so-called soda water sold by many apothecaries in Montreal, and reports that nearly all of them contain traces of lead, iron of copper, and that one sample was so largely impregnated with copper and lead as to be a dangerous beverage. He further says that none of the samples contain soda, only aerated water.

In the V. &amp; T. R. R. shops are being constructed three postal cars which will be put on the C. &amp; C. road on the first of next month.

The story currently reported in Virginia that another big combination shaft was to be sunk on the Comstock lode was without foundation.

W. D. Phillips and family will leave Reno next Saturday morning on a two-months visit to Watertown, New York, the scene of Mr. Phillips' boy-hood days.

Mrs. J. H. Parker and George Simpson take their departure this morning for Portland Oregon, where they have decided to take up a permanent residence.

An elaborate specimen of coprolite found at the State Prison is what the Carson papers magnified into petrified remains of a rabbit folded in the coils of a snake.

In the Nevada State Orphan's Home is a boy ten years of age named Don Juan, and he is supposed to be the lineal descendant of Byron's hero of the same name.

New dress goods, new underwear, new hosiery new trimmings, new laces, new embroideries, new ties, new collars and the latest novelties can be found at Jamison's.

Sir Knight Joseph Marzen, of Big Meadows, took his black charger, Humboldt Boy, a $2,000 horse, to the Conclave, and people who saw the procession say he was the finest looking steed in the ranks.

Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation, and a fine constitution may be broken and ruined by simple neglect. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills to correct the evil, and restore the organs to natural, healthy, and regular action.

"By the Great Horn Spoon," exclaimed an eastern knight after breakfasting at the Palace Restaurant, "th is is ahead of any eating establishment I have patronized on the Coast. I shall vote to hold the next Conclave in Reno."

Know Thy Self.

Supposing your age to be under twenty, the Doctors say you have 160 bones and muscles; your blood weighs 25 pounds; your heart is five inches in length and three inches in diameter; it beats 70 times a minute, 4,200 times per hour and 100,800 per day. At each beat a little over two ounces of blood is thrown out of it, and each day it receives and discharges about seven tons of that wonderful fluid. Your lungs will contain a gallon of air, and you inhale 24,000 per day. The aggregate surface of the air cells of your lungs, supposing them to be spread out, exceeds 20,000 square inches. The weight of your brain is three pounds; when you are a man it will weigh eight ounces more. Your nerves exceed 10,000,000 in number. Your skin is composed of three layers, and varies in thickness. The area of your skin is about 1,700 square inches, and are subject to an atmospheric pressure of fifteen pounds to the square inch. Each square inch of your skin contains 3,500 sweating tubs or perspiratory pores, each of which may be likened to a little drain tile, one-fourth of an inch long, making an aggregate length of the entire surface of your body of a drain or the tile ditch for draining the body of 23 1/4 miles long.

Strike in the Day Mine.

They have, says the Pioche Record, encountered copper ore on the sixth level of the Day mine. In working around the ore chamber lately struck the copper ore was found. It is on the east side of the ore chamber. The foot of this copper ledge is three feet in width. From a select sample of the ore, a test made by Supt. Grim, this ore showed 70 per cent. copper. A person on looking at the sample would take it to be mostly lime, yet the test proved otherwise. The whole ledge will go from 35 to 45 per cent copper, and about $40 in silver. As soon as prospecting the ore chamber is completed the copper ledge will be prospected. It is located along the side of the fissure, and the surrounding country leads one to believe that it widens as it goes down.

A Chinese Jesuit.

Carson City, it must be admitted is a little in the lead again. She now boasts of a Chinese Jesuit who is a resident of that city, and who, it is said, when properly ordained, will return to China and disseminate the Catholic religion among his countrymen, if not forbidden to do so by his barbaric government. He is a very intelligent man, speaks English well and appears to be familiar with English literature. Where he is from, and whatever induced him to take up a temporary residence here, as he is engaged in no business, could not be learned. He is very reticent on matters concerning himself, but talks very freely upon religious and other subjects.

Picnic at Steamboat.

A week from next Sunday the Minors of Storey and Lyon counties will hold their annual picnic at Steamboat. It will probably be the last as well as the most enjoyable of the season. A large new dancing floor has been erected in the park for this special occasion, and every other detail calculated to make the picnic enjoyable has been attended to. The Washington Guard Band has been engaged to furnish the music for the occasion. Exercises will commence at 5 o'clock Sunday morning and continue until sun up the next morning.

Struggle With a Maniac

William Thomas, a lunatic confined in the jail at Eureka, came near getting away with the Sheriff the other day. He attempted to escape by passing the Sheriff at the door of the jail, when the Sheriff grabbed him by the shoulders and a struggle ensued in which Thomas' coat sleeves were torn off from the shoulders. The man, developing prodigious strength, got a cross hold on the lappets of Kaye's coat and was giving him a hard game when Billy Mayon came in and took a hand in the mole. The two officers then overpowered the prisoner and locked him up.

Sinking

Gus Lewis, one of Carson's oldest and best known residents, is at death's door. Day before yesterday he was delirious and during the night following was sleepless and restless. Yesterday morning he fell into a sleep which refreshed him somewhat, but his condition is serious.

The Coming Process.

The Belmont Courier of last Saturday says: The Arlington Leaching Works, in this county, are producing fine bullion. The owners, George Nickoll & Co., shipped yesterday one bar of bullion, weighing 1,845 ounces, 993 fine, and valued at $1,674 66.

Henry Johnson is again watchman at the Insane Asylum.

Lost His Leg.

Sadler, the gentleman whom Dr. Waggoner was called to see at Dog Valley day before yesterday, was found upon examination to have had his foot and ankle so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. He was accordingly brought to Reno yesterday morning and the injured limb taken off just below the knee by Doctors Bergman, Waggoner and Lewis. He endured the operation bravely and was resting quite comfortably last night. The accident happened at the logging camps in Dog Valley. Mr. Sadler was on a load of logs driving to the mill when the wagon upset, throwing Sadler to the ground in such a manner that one of the logs fell on his foot and ankle reducing it to a shapeless mass of flesh and bones. Mr. Sadler is a man past 50 years of age, which makes his injuries doubly severe.

Wyoming Stockmen.

Wyoming stockmen say they have been misrepresented as to their attitude in regard to Judge Sener's fence decision. J. M. Curry, who is President of the Stock Growers' Association, representing $1,000,000, says he would like to see not an acre of land fenced in this Territory unless the man fencing has a legal title to the land. He himself has some so fenced, but is ready to pull down the wire and roll it up if that course is generally pursued.

Before starting home, Raper Company elected Manager Thorne, of the Grand Hotel, an honorary member of the Raper drill corps.

Governor Stoneman will issue a proclamation declaring Admission Day September 9th, a legal holiday in California.

James Warren, the murderer of Rattlesnake Dick, has been removed from Hawthorne to Aurora.

Mr. Shaft, the carpenter, leaves this morning to work on the Lafayette Hotel at Winnemucca.

The family of E. W. Oratber left for Winnemucca yesterday morning.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering with or without pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-24-1-yr

O'Donovan Rossa.

At a recent examination in London of James McDermott, who is supposed to be connected with the dynamite conspiracy, it is stated that cards were found on the prisoner signed by Joseph Stephen and O'Donovan Rossa. On the latter's card the following was written: "Tell the boys over there, I will do my utmost to help to destroy the common enemy."

A Chinaman was naturalized in New York yesterday. As he had taken out his first papers in 1880 he did not come under the restriction act of 1882.

The French are in possession of Hue, the capital of Annam, and if their ultimatum is rejected will blockade all the ports of the Empire.

The house in which Daniel O'Connell was born is now a neglected ruin. The roof long ago fell in, and the stone walls are overgrown, inside and out, with ivy. Across the road stands an abandoned and dismantled mill. In the neighboring village of Cahirciveen—a squalid, straggling place—almost every one person one meets is named O'Connell. One of the magistrates is Daniel O'Connell, a grandson of the famous Liberator, and many of the townspeople are closely related to him.

An odd discovery was made recently at the King's Cross railway station in England. A box, which had not been claimed, was opened, and the body of a child almost in a mummified condition, was found in it. The child was about two years old, and had been dead apparently about two years. The body had been carefully prepared to prevent decay.

Must Settle at Last.

A very long-drawn-out case has just been decided in the Supreme Court of the United States. In 1869 Wm. H. Jessup was a manufacturer of friction matches in San Francisco. Suit was commenced in the U. S. Circuit Court in 1877 against Jessup and his bondsmen alleging that Jessup did not make a faithful return of the moneys received by him for stamps delivered to him by the United States, and that $300 remained due to the United States from Jessup. Jessup refused to pay. Suit was brought against him and his bondsmen to recover the amount with interest. The case was tried before Circuit Judge Sawyer who, on June 24, 1879, gave judgment for the United States for $3,679 and costs. The case was appealed to the United States Supreme Court on a writ of error. Tuesday a mandate was filed in the U. S. Circuit Court from the United States Supreme Court commanding that such proceedings be had in the case as are according to right and justice, the writ of error notwithstanding, and affirming the judgment of Judge Sawyer.

Weakened

The Frenchman Hilarie Balam, who was to swim the whirlpool rapids yesterday visited the falls, but did not attempt the feat. He returned to New York and says he will attempt it in the future, but would give no date.

Now and Then.

Some of the principal officials of the Central Pacific Railroad were in El Paso, Texas, recently, looking for a suitable location for new machine shops, and the hospitality of the city was extended to them. In a few years that hospitality may turn itself into a petty and dog-in-the-manger opposition to every work of improvement sought to be inaugurated by the company, to a continual snarling at its heels, to a biting off even of the city's nose in order to spite the railroad portion of its face. It has been so elsewhere, and it may be so there.—Sacramento Bee

SLIGHT ODDS.

A Little Story With a Large Moral—One Man Who Knew his own Business.

"No, my dear," said the venerable keeper of a country store to a timid little girl whose head scarcely came up to the level of the counter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red flannel, but we have some first rate New Orleans molasses." Softly hinting that she didn't think that would answer the purpose quite as well, the child went her way in search of the article she wanted.

"Have you BENSON'S CAPSICINE PLASTERS?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggist whose name could be given were it desired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbago, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as soon as it touches the skin."

"Not at present," replied the druggist, gently, "but, we have lots of plasters just as good. There is Allcock's, the Capsicum and others—won't one of them do as well?"

"My dear sir," retorted the gentleman, with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against those articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what I want, and for nothing else. I may enlighten you, however, when I say that sometime ago, for another disease, of which the Capsicine has since cured me, I tried all those you mention, with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficient, every one of them, the meaning act of the proprietors of some of them being this, that they make plasters with similar sounding names to deceive the unwary into believing they are the same thing. Experience taught me different, I'll go to the next man in your line. Good day."

Be on your guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPSICINE cut cleanly in the middle of the plaster. All others are impostures.
